JOIN THE FIGHT AGAINST KNIFE SALES

LIFE-SAVING
Youngsters can help expose rogue traders selling
knives to youths

● Plea for volunteers to help crack down on wave of East London stabbings

CRIME chiefs have appealed to young volunteers to help them keep knives off the streets of Barking and Dagenham.

Trading Standards officials will crack down on traders who sell blades to youngsters.

They have appealed for volunteers aged between 14 and 17 to take part in its 'covert test' purchase operations.

Offenders face heavy fines.

Jonathon Toy, operational director for enforcement services at Barking and Dagenham Council, said: "We want to hear from the young people who know a life is worth more than a knife.

"Our test purchase operations are an important tool in the fight against knife crime.

"As well as checking on knife sales to young people by retailers, test purchase operations also include checks on sales of alcohol and tobacco products to young people who are under age."

Volunteers are always accompanied by Trading Standards Officers and in some cases by police officers. They are also rewarded with gift tokens.

The campaign has been launched amid growing concerns about rising knife crime in Barking and Dagenham and neighbouring boroughs.

Happy Snappy

CAMPAIGNERS at an east London college want us to get 'Snappy' about saving the planet.

Film and media students at Barking and Dagenham have re-imagined Pharrell Williams' 'Happy' hit as a green-themed ode to reducing environmental damage.

'Snappy' features criticism of rising domestic waste and support for the council's 'slim your bin' campaign.

Chris Thorne, director of the video, said 'Snappy' reflects modern concerns: "Like lots of young people we're worried about the environment, so it seemed a great way to learn our trade and promote waste reduction at the same time.

"It was a team effort with friends, fellow students and volunteers from the Frizlands Recycling depot pitching in ideas and time to produce a viral video we can share."

Police appeal for information over alleged Cooke Street 'slash' assault

POLICE have arrested two men in connection with an alleged assault in Barking.

The pair, aged 18 and 20, were arrested on Tuesday, May 11, in connection with an alleged attack on two men who suffered slash injuries. They are currently in custody at an east London police station.

DS Jim Barry, from the Met's Trident and Area Crime Command, said: "A large group of males approached the victim on a busy road on Tuesday afternoon. Were you there? Did you see those involved before the attack or making off?"

The alleged assault was at 4.55pm on Tuesday, May 9.

Police were called to Gascoigne Road by paramedics treating a 19-year-old man with a wound on his arm.

Officers discovered a 20-year-old man, whose arm was slashed in the same attack, in nearby Cooke Street shortly after they arrived.

Both men were taken to an east London hospital and their injuries are not life-threatening.

Police believe that the second man was injured when he tried to save the 19-year-old.

Enquiries are ongoing and anyone with information can call 101, tweet @MetCC or contact Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

● A GARDENER was found suspended by a shoelace on a tree with high levels of alcohol and cocaine in his body.

Zydrunas Jucys, 21, of Porters Avenue, Dagenham, was pronounced dead at 6.40am on July 31, 2016, after he was found in Mayesbrook Park, Barking.

Mr Jucys, who turned 21 a week before his death, was found with no disturbance around him and no injuries of defence, assault or restraint. He was also "in a position that he could have placed himself in, without assistance", the coroner recorded.

Mr Jucys had high levels of alcohol, together with recreational levels of cocaine in his blood and urine.

The coroner recorded a narrative verdict.

● A RETIRED warehouseman died of mesothelioma, a coroner ruled.

Kenneth Griffiths, 69, of The Coverdales, Barking, died on January 6 at Queen's Hospital, Romford.

The coroner, who recorded a narrative conclusion, concluded that Mr Griffiths had no contact with asbestos during the course of his working life. But he was likely to have had exposure to asbestos fibres on his father's clothes. Mr Griffiths's father worked in an asbestos factory and came home in dusty workwear which he would help to wash.

● A BUILDER found with high levels of morphine in his blood died of a drug-related death.

Sigitas Sniegys, 32, of Beam Way, Dagenham, was found dead in his bedroom on November 11, 2016, surrounded by drug paraphernalia and cocaine.

Mr Sniegys had no injuries and there was no sign of disturbance.

● A FIRM has been fined £1,000 in its absence and must pay £681 costs and a £100 victim surcharge for abandoning a white van in a Dagenham street.

Crystal Cleaning Service, of Colchester, was brought before Barkingside magistrates on Friday, May 12 by Barking and Dagenham Council after officers traced the Ford Transit.

Shooting stars

NETBALL warriors from Scotts Primary and Clockhouse Primary schools battled it out in a fiercely competitive netball match in Hornchurch.

A closely fought game with plenty of twists and turns saw Clockhouse edge Scotts 10-7.

Katy White, PE teacher at Scotts Primary, said: "All 14 children that have shown dedication to training were part of the netball squad that played.

"It was so nice to see how excited all the children were before the match.

"Well done to everybody that played – great sporting etiquette was on display and lots of netballing talent."

Hunt for pub thugs

POLICE have released CCTV images of men they want to question after three men were attacked outside a pub.

One of the victims suffered a broken jaw. The men were attacked by three others inside the JJ Moons pub in Hornchurch High Street on Wednesday, February 22, at 10.30pm and the attack spilled out on to High Road.

CCTV: The men police want to quiz

DC Phil Stokes, from Romford CID, said: "This was a nasty, unprovoked attack, which left one of the victims with injuries requiring immediate surgery. The level of violence used was shocking. I urge anyone with information to come forward."

Anyone with information can call 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555111.

Surgery put in special measures

A SURGERY in Romford has been put into special measures by health inspectors for "inadequate" leadership and unsafe services.

Oak Lodge Surgery was given an overall "inadequate" rating by the Care Quality Commission (CQC).

Professor Steve Field, chief inspector of general practice, saw no choice but to put the surgery in special measures.

He said: "On the basis of the ratings given to this practice at this inspection I am placing the provider into special measures.

"This will be for a period of six months. We will inspect the practice again in six months to consider whether sufficient improvements have been made.

"If we find that the provider is still providing inadequate care, we will take steps to cancel its registration with CQC."

Dr Rana Chowdhury, lead practitioner at Oak Lodge Surgery, stressed that the CQC's concerns related to "procedural matters rather than safety on a personal level".

He said: "We have looked in detail at the CQC report based on their January 2017 visit and over the last four months have addressed the procedural matters raised such as producing policy documents covering procedures on the collection of repeat prescriptions and the prescribing of high risk drugs.

"In fact, most of the policy document issues have already been successfully dealt with and many submitted to the CQC, such as the gas boiler inspection.

"I would just like to point out that the CQC report raises issues of a procedural nature and that there have been no individual incidences concerning patient safety."

Professor Field's recommendations included putting "a system in place to ensure mandatory training, in particular fire safety, safeguarding and infection control is up-to-date", improving "monitoring of patients on high risk medicines" and investigating "safety incidents thoroughly and ensure that the procedures are adhered to and there are effective reporting systems in place".

The surgery was given the lowest possible rating for both service safety and leadership.

Service effectiveness received a "requires improvement" rating while service responsiveness and the level of care put into treatment were deemed "good".

Inspectors noticed that "no staff had received fire training" and an absence of both fire drill records and fire risk assessments."

Not all staff could "fully use clinical computer systems", inspectors found.

Additionally, inspectors could not find evidence of monitoring of high risk medicines and risk assessment for missing emergency medicines. However, inspectors noted several good practices.

Patients found it easy to make an appointment with their GP and felt they were treated with compassion and dignity by staff.

Most staff told inspectors that they felt supported by management.

Information about services and how to complain was easy to understand and available. Longer appointments and home visits were also available when required.

£745,000

Wickford

Proudly positioned on a superb plot measuring in the region of a quarter of an acre (226' max x 53') toward the end of a quiet no through road only a short walk to Wickford Railway Station (29 minutes to London Stratford), is this outstanding FOUR-bedroom bungalow. Having been extensively extended and consistently improved, the accommodation is vast throughout and presented to the highest of standards. Upon our inspection, our jaws dropped over the sheer size of the property. The tremendous rear garden measures 141' x 53' and as previously mentioned, is feature full and has been cleverly designed. The garden commences with a patio area which steps up to raised landscaped area with access either side leading to a large 22' x 14' heated swimming pool and the main garden.

Wickford

We are delighted to market this most attractive FOUR-bedroom detached home situated within one of Wickfords prime roads. Internally the property comes with an abundance of features and is an ideal purchase for a buyer that is seeking a home with much character. This superb home sits on a 200' plot which consists of ample parking 28' garage/workshop and a beautiful rear garden which measures in the region of 150' and is unoverlooked to the rear with a pleasant leafy outlook. The exterior is a real 'all rounder'. The front commences with ample driveway parking and an attractive garden area with hedging to majority of the front boundary. The driveway continues to a large 28' garage/workshop which has power and light.

Burnham on Crouch

Pleasantly situated within a tucked away position yet within easy distance to Burnham on Crouch Railway station is this extremely large FOUR bedroom detached house. The accommodation is superb and comes with versatile living space. The ground floor commences with a grand entrance hall with high ceiling and view of galleried landing. There are three reception rooms including an enormous lounge with open inglenook style fireplace. In addition there is a bright and airy conservatory style family room, open plan from the kitchen which features a log burner and overlooks the secluded rear garden. Upstairs follows suit in size and has a spacious galleried landing. The cavernous master bedroom measures 25'4" with access to the family bathroom and plenty of storage space.

Wickford

Executive style FOUR/FIVE bedroom detached house has been much improved by the current owners and boasts features such as a high quality kitchen with granite worktops, modern family bathroom and a fantastic en-suite/WC. The accommodation commences with an entrance porch leading to long hallway. The garage was converted and is currently being used as a fifth bedroom but could act as another reception room. The kitchen/diner measures over 30' long with a high class kitchen and the dining area benefiting from French doors opening to the rear garden. Upstairs benefits from well proportioned bedrooms and as previously mentioned an impressive bathroom and en-suite to the master bedroom. The rear garden is partly secluded and attractively laid out.

COMPLACENT HAMMERS NO MATCH FOR REDS

Football

West Ham United 0-4 Liverpool
Brian Jeeves reporting from the London Stadium

WEST HAM UNITED disappointingly completed their inaugural Premier League campaign at the London Stadium, slipping to a thumping defeat to an impressive Liverpool side who continued their own assault on a Champions League place.

Once again, it was a patched up Hammers line-up with Mark Noble, Cheikhou Kouyate, Andy Carroll, Michail Antonio, Pedro Obiang, Diafra Sakho and Arthur Masuaku all unavailable to manager Slaven Bilic.

Liverpool arrived in east London looking to cement a top-four finish and having picked up maximum points from each of their previous three away matches. Boss Jurgen Klopp was dealt a blow with Roberto Firmino sidelined. However, both Adam Lallana and Daniel Sturridge started after recovering sufficiently from recent injuries.

In a fluent start to the game, West Ham should have taken the lead when Sam Byram fired across the face of goal, this after Jonathan Calleri crafted the opening.

Then Edmilson Fernandes drew a superb save from Simon Mignolet with a rasping drive from 25-yards. Meanwhile, Liverpool were left cursing their luck after Joel Matip nodded Philippe Coutinho's flag-kick against the bar with their first meaningful foray forward.

Coutinho and James Milner tested Adrian while the former saw another effort whistle over as the Merseysiders began to attack with greater purpose.

The visitors were clearly bossing proceedings. Daniel Sturridge and Milner were off-target, but when Sturridge was presented with a clear run on goal, the frontman made short work of rounding Adrian and slotting into an empty net.

Shortly before the break, Andre Ayew hit the foot of an upright twice in a matter of seconds as the home side passed up their best opportunity of the opening period.

While James Collins nodded into Mignolet's gloves as the Hammers continued their search for a way back into the game.

Adrian was hit into action, expertly saving from Divock Origi, Lallana and Sturridge as Liverpool began the second period very much on the front foot.

Georgino Wijnaldum rattled the bar with a thundering volley as Liverpool continued to press, and it came as no surprise when Coutinho fired low beyond Adrian to double the visitors' advantage shortly before the hour mark.

West Ham were wobbling and soon found themselves further behind as Coutinho waltzed through a static rearguard before firing home his second of the afternoon, much to the dismay of the agitated home crowd.

Buoyant Liverpool were totally dominant. Origi clipped the top of the bar with an outrageous attempt from distance, but his next attempt was more accurate, prodding home from close range as Liverpool added a fourth, sparking a mass exodus among the home supporters who had seen enough.

Substitute Robert Snodgrass volleyed narrowly wide in the final stages, but in truth, West Ham looked a well-beaten side. This had once again been a frustrating afternoon for the London Stadium faithful, who went away wondering where the passion had gone from that derby success over Spurs a little over a week ago.

Speaking after the match, Bilic said: "I'm very disappointed with the way we played. We wanted to put in the same performance as we did against Spurs, or similar. But it wasn't to be.

"We wanted to avoid that factor of complacency, but obviously, it was there subconsciously."

Bilic continued: "We were nowhere near close enough to them when they had the ball. If you give the time to players like Coutinho, Lallana and Sturridge then sooner or later they will kill you."

Meanwhile, delighted Liverpool boss Klopp said: "Looking back now, it was hard work, and there were a few moments where the game could have changed.

"I thought we had a real deserved win. It was a really good football game. A perfect afternoon."
